JENNIFER WHALLEY

Jennifer has worked with the Rodney Art Society, New Zealand Fellowship of Artists, Mairangi Art Society, Omokoroa Artists, Tauranga Society of Artists and Greenwood Park Artists, learning many different skills and teaching others.

Painting in a number of mediums – watercolour, acrylics, oils, pastels and mixed media, including embroidery – all her work is Representational; Land and Seascape, Flowers and Animals, as she paints the beauty of God's amazing creation.

Many paintings, including Commissions, have been sold and taken all over the world.

Among numerous prizes was our Bay of Plenty Phone Book cover in 2005-2006.

She also exhibited a 'Door of Hope' on the Strand.

FROM THE PROGRAMME AND COMPETITIONS SUBCOMMITTEE

Grateful thanks to all members who participated so splendidly in the recent Mid-Year Competitions Day. It takes so many of us to make the day a success and did we pull the stops out!!!

I have received wonderful reports from people who felt the Judge, Alice Hutchinson, was probably the best we have had and her grasp of the English language, describing everyone's paintings so eloquently was a joy to listen to. We had over 90 paintings submitted and again the standard of work surpassed previous entries. It doesn't make the judging an easy task, but we all learn so much from entering, and seeing our peers improve and challenge themselves is a great reward to us, the members of the subcommittee who initiate and run these days.

Special thanks to everyone who pitches in on the day in whatever capacity you are comfortable with and everyone nowadays just gets on with their task so efficiently and well, like a well-oiled machine, that also helps in making the day go so well. I hear the talks and quiz were also most appreciated so thanks to the presenters of those as well.

We have had to cancel the Encaustic Workshop with Lynne Dara as only one name appeared on the Expression of Interest form. Lynne tells me that she is happy to hold small workshops at her home and if there is anyone who is interested in a smaller almost one-on-one day with Lynne then please get in touch with me.

With the Supreme Art Exhibition looming on the horizon we know that some of your artworks submitted to the competitions will re-appear there for the public to view and hopefully purchase. Please support this event as it is a well-recognised and extremely well publicised event which the Tauranga public are looking forward to attending.

More workshops are in planning stages for the next few months so keep an eye on your Newsletter.

Mary McTavish, Karen Pritchard, Val Chapman, Judith Robinson, Debbie Clarke and new subcommittee members who attended our last meeting, Greg Nicie and Sheryl Rout

PASTEL SESSION

PASTEL SESSION Monday 3rd June 9.30am to 4pm: As this day is a holiday Brian and I have decided to treat this day as our normal pastel session in the club rooms so those who wish to join us are welcome. Time to finish those paintings for the Art Expo in June.

PASTEL OPEN SESSION Monday 17th June 9.30am to 4pm: Time to enjoy experimenting new techniques and critiquing our paintings, with helpful suggestions to improve and enhance our efforts. Bring along those paintings which you are having trouble with and trying to actually finish.

PORTRAITURE

22 paintings were entered into "The Girl with the Pearl Earring" challenge. Some members did two or three. It was a very good showing and all are well pleased with their results as it was not an easy picture to paint. We had Pavlova and biscuits for morning tea followed by a DVD about Johannes Vermeer. The pictures will be on the Tauranga Society of Artists Facebook page. Well done everyone.

Judith Robinson & Robin Purllant, convenors

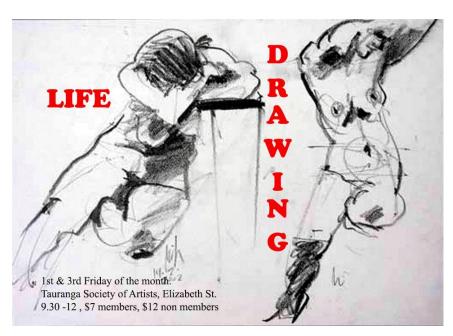

LIFE DRAWING

Why Life Drawing?

The human figure is one of the most constant and consistent things in our lives. It's people. Our friends, our family, our communities. It's something we are all intimately familiar with. And yet because of our familiarity with it, and the fact we seldom get to "study" it (after all it is rude to stare and most people are continually on the move!) it is one of the most difficult things to "capture" in art.

Life Drawing gives you the opportunity to study the human form, our models are both still and happy for you to stare, and to experiment with capturing it in different ways and using different media. Whether you are keen to extend your skill in absolute realism or want to experiment with alternative methods or media our bi-monthly Life Drawing Session will give you the opportunity. It's untutored - but you WILL be inspired, supported and encouraged. It is an invitation to explore and develop.

The range and diversity of work in the Life Drawing group is inspiring. From beginner steps (and I started as an ABSOLUTE beginner!), to expert work and exploration. It is all here.

A study on a face, a foot, a hand or a whole figure - a detailed portrait, or a vague figure in a landscape - it is all yours for the drawing every first and third Friday morning.

Come along, explore the resource (a nude figure is not a common resource!) and enjoy the fellowship. See you there.

Tanya Bamford-King, convenor

LIBRARY NEWS

Thank-you to Graham Baker for his donation to the library.

OCEANS

As winter progresses, we will inevitably experience storms and high seas which will motivate some exciting painting challenges to capture the moods and power for portrayal with any media of choice. We have several CD's and books with helpful hints and advice.

CD's

- Painting the Sea in Oils Morning Breakers, by Michael Sanders (no smell, no turps)
- The Southwest Seascape, by Andrew Tisheler
 An excellent example of realistic capturing of the power of the sea and rocks
- Seascape in Watercolour: Waves, Rocks, Sea and Sand, by E.T. Robinson (Approximately 1 hour viewing each)

BOOKS

- Painting Seas and Skies, by Jean Khanbecian
 Demonstrates composition to capture the illusion of magnitude, distance and depth with focus
- Down By The Sea (Chapter1) by Claudia Nice
 An introduction of tools, pen, colour palette and techniques. An excellent synopsis to capture the moods and atmosphere of sea and surf in a variety of mediums. The instructions alongside the demonstration steps give explicit insight into colour combinations and brush work.
- The Artists Painting Library Seascapes in Watercolour, by Wendon Blake & Claude Cron.

WORKSHOPS

WATERCOLOUR WORLD - Miriam Ruberl

4th Thursday each month 1-4pm

10 sessions will visit every conceivable aspect of watercolours in their many available forms known to the tutor. Most of our session time will be spent doing, the "theory" will be visited when relevant. The series is designed to develop your skills and techniques over time, providing you with a certificate of completion, the knowledge that you have fully explored watercolour mediums and know how to handle them, may be even choose to teach others!

Thursday 13th June 1-6pm will be the catchup session for those who have paid for the 10 sessions but missed any of 1, 2 and 3. This is also a chance for anyone to pick up the content so far and then carry on with the series, and qualify for the Ohope camp discount.

Contact Mary for payment details.

NEXT SESSION

27 June, 25 July, 22 August, 26 September, 24 October, 28 November

Session costs: $45 per session

A TSA member for over 20 years, I am one of those artists who used to be told to find her style. Over the years I have found it completely unnecessary to stick to one medium, subject or technique. Watercolours were my first love, progressing to Chinese Inks and then Mixed Media and Abstract work. I hold a B.Soc.Sci., specialising in perceptual processes, and an Advanced Diploma in Art and Creativity, confirming my belief that versatility with materials and processes makes for the greatest possibilities in creative expression, and yield endless joy and surprise. I am fortunate to have exhibited internationally, including New York, have pieces in many collections around the world, and been a part of many people exploring their creative possibilities by tutoring both privately and in workshops throughout New Zealand. Under the banner Passionate Pursuits, I offer occasional workshops to advance people into sustainable arts businesses. The days of the starving artist are behind us, if we dare.
